02

SECTIONS

- 1.1 The rules, which are subject to the articles, contain the terms upon which P&I cover is given by the insurer.
- 1.2 The standard risks against which an assured is insured are set out in rule 3.
- 1.3.1 An assured may be insured in respect of risks other than those set out in rule 3, or in respect of risks otherwise excluded, where such risks have been agreed by the insurer.
- 1.3.2 Any such risks are covered subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of the rules.
- 1.3.3 The insurer may reinsure any such risk.
- 1.4 No act, omission, course of dealing or forbearance or reimbursement by the insurer shall be treated as any evidence of a waiver of the insurer's rights under the rules.

➤ SECTION B: SCOPE OF COVER

- 2.1 The liabilities in respect of which an assured is insured must have arisen by reason of the assured's interest in the ship, out of events occurring during the policy period and in connection with the operation of the ship.
- 2.2 Where such liabilities would not have arisen but for the terms of any contract or indemnity, the contract or indemnity must either correspond to any specific requirements set out in rule 3 or rule 5, or have been approved by the insurer.
- 2.3 An assured's insurance is subject to the warranties, conditions, exceptions, limitations and other terms set out in the rules and the policy.
- 2.4 An assured is not insured for any liabilities incurred by him in a capacity other than that in which he has entered into the contract of insurance with the insurer.
- 2.5 This policy of insurance is only applicable to navigational area of the policy. Unless otherwise agreed in the policy, there shall be no recovery by the assured from the insurer for any liabilities incurred by the assured outside of the navigational area.

Exclusion to rule 3.1.2

Liabilities arising out of the termination of any agreement, or the sale of the ship, or any other act of the assured in respect of the ship.

102

Substitute Expenses

3.1.3 Expenses necessarily incurred in sending substitutes to replace crew who have died, are incapacitated or who have been left ashore in consequence of injury, illness, or desertion. Wages are only recoverable when payable to substitutes, while awaiting and during repatriation.

Passengers

- 3.2.1 Liabilities in respect of the injury, illness or death of a passenger.
- 3.2.2 Liabilities to passengers arising out of a casualty while they are on board the ship. For the purpose of this rule 'casualty' means collision, stranding, explosion, fire or any other cause affecting the condition of the ship so as to render her incapable of safe navigation to her intended destination; or a threat to the life, health or safety of passengers.
- 3.2.3 Loss of or damage to a passenger's baggage or effects, excluding valuables.
- 3.2.4 In respect of any liabilities arising under rule 3.2, the passenger contract must relieve the assured of liability to the maximum extent permitted under the applicable law.

Exclusions to rule 3.2

 - a During repatriation of an injured or sick passenger, or following a casualty to the ship; or
 - b During excursions from the ship, subject to exclusion (2) below.

 - (4) The injury, illness or death of any person on board such other ship

(5) Pollution liabilities as may be covered under rule 3.8.

3.6.3 That part of the assured's collision liability which exceeds the sum recoverable under the hull policies solely by reason of such liability exceeding the valuation of the ship in those policies. However, the insurer may determine the proper value (being the market value of the ship without commitment) for which the ship should have been insured under the hull policies, and the insurer shall pay only the excess of the amount which would have been recoverable if the ship had been insured thereunder at such value.

3.6.4 There will be no recovery from the insurer insofar as such collision liabilities are not recoverable under the hull policies by reason of any breach of such policies.

3.6.5 If both ships are to blame then, unless the liability of the owners of one or both of them becomes limited by law, claims shall be settled upon the principle of cross-liabilities.

Damage to other Ships (other than by collision)

3.7 Liabilities for loss of or damage to, delay to, interference with rights in relation to, or liability for salvage or wreck removal costs incurred in respect of, any other ship or any cargo or other property therein caused other than by collision with the ship.

- 3.8.5 Liabilities under a salvage agreement to compensate salvors for work done or measures taken to prevent or reduce pollution or the risk thereof by the escape from the ship of any substance.
- 3.8.6 Liabilities incurred after the ship has become a wreck arising from the discharge or escape from such wreck of any substance.

(1) liabilities which but for the terms of any contract of carriage would have been allowed in general average adjusted under the un-amended York Antwerp Rules 1994

(2) liabilities, loss or damage including, without limitation, liability for the cost of any remedial works or clean-up operations, arising as a result of the presence in, or the escape or discharge or threat of escape or discharge from, any land based dump, site, storage or disposal facility of any substance previously carried on the ship whether as cargo, fuel, stores or waste and whether at any time mixed in whole or in part with any other substance whatsoever.

107

(1) Such liabilities relate to the risks set out in the other paragraphs of rule 3; and

(2) The towage is undertaken for the purpose of saving life or property at sea; or

(3) The ship is towing under a United Kingdom, The Netherlands or Scandinavian standard towage contract, the current Lloyd's standard form of salvage agreement – no cure no pay, Towcon, Towhire standard forms, all in materially unamended form, or any other standard form towage contract containing equivalent or better protection than the said standard conditions or standard forms, or to which the insurer may, on such terms as it requires, agree in writing.

Wreck Liabilities

3.11.1 Liabilities for or incidental to the raising, removal, destruction, lighting or marking of the wreck of the ship. The value of the wreck and all stores and materials saved must be deducted from any reimbursement and only the balance is recoverable.

3.11.2 Liabilities resulting from the actual or attempted raising, removal or destruction of the wreck of the ship, cargo or any other property on board.

3.11.3 Liabilities resulting from the presence or involuntary shifting of the wreck of the ship, cargo or any other property on board caused by the casualty which led to the loss of the ship, cargo or any other property on board. An assured is not entitled to be reimbursed by the insurer in respect of any liability incurred in respect of any liability incurred more than two years after the ship, cargo or any other property on board became a wreck.

- 3.11.4 Liabilities for or incidental to the raising, removal, destruction or disposal of cargo or any other property which is being, or has been, carried on the ship. The value of all cargo or any other property saved accruing to the assured must be deducted from any reimbursement and only the balance is recoverable.

Exclusions to rule 3.11

(1) There shall be no recovery if the assured has, without the agreement of the insurer, transferred his interest in the wreck other than by abandonment, at any time after the ship became a wreck.

(2) There shall be no recovery unless the raising, removal, destruction, lighting or marking of the wreck, or the raising, removal, destruction or disposal of cargo or any other property, was compulsory by law or was undertaken with the agreement of the insurer.

(3) An assured is not entitled to reimbursement in respect of any liability unless he took reasonable measures to raise, remove, destroy, light or mark the wreck, or raise, remove, destroy or dispose of cargo or any other property.

(4) There shall be no recovery unless the assured has contracted for removal of the wreck on terms which have been approved by the insurer.

(5) There shall be no recovery in respect of liabilities for or incidental to the raising, removal, destruction, lighting or marking of the wreck of the ship unless the ship became a wreck as a result of a casualty. For the purpose of this rule 'casualty' means collision, stranding, explosion, fire or similar fortuitous event, but excludes any wreck caused by dereliction or neglect.

SECTION C: RISKS COVERED

Quarantine Expenses

- 3.12 Expenses incurred as a direct consequence of an outbreak of infectious disease on the ship, including quarantine and disinfection expenses, and the net loss to the assured in respect of fuel, insurance, wages, stores, provisions, cargo handling and port charges.

Exclusion to rule 3.12

There shall be no recovery if at the time the ship was chartered to, or was under orders from the assured or her insurer to, proceed to a port it was known, or should in the insurer's view reasonably have been anticipated, that she would be quarantined.

Cargo Liabilities

- 3.13.1 Liabilities for loss or shortage of, or damage to, or other responsibility in respect of, cargo or other property intended to be, or being, or having been carried in, on or by the ship arising out of any breach by the assured, or by any person for whose acts, neglect or default he may be legally liable, of his obligation properly to load, handle, stow, carry, keep, care for, discharge and deliver such cargo or property, or out of unseaworthiness or unfitness of the ship.
- 3.13.2 The extra costs incurred by the assured:
- (1) In the actual discharge or disposal of damaged or worthless cargo, provided that he can only recover such costs if he has no recourse to recover them from any other party; or
 - (2) As a direct consequence of the failure by cargo interests to collect or remove cargo from the place of discharge or delivery, provided that he can only recover such costs to the extent they exceed the proceeds of the sale of the cargo and he has no recourse to recover them from any other party.

- 3.13.3 Liabilities for loss of or damage to or responsibility in respect of cargo or other property being carried by means of transport other than the ship, for which the assured may be liable under a contract of carriage, approved by the insurer, providing for carriage partly to be performed by the ship.

Exclusions to rule 3.13

There shall be no recovery in respect of liabilities arising out of:

Hague and Hague-Visby Rules

111

(1) The carriage of cargo on contractual terms more onerous to the carrier than those of the Hague or Hague-Visby Rules, or equally wide exemptions of the carrier from liability, save where it is on such terms solely by reason of the incorporation by law of the Hamburg Rules or parts thereof, to the extent that the liabilities exceed those which would have been incurred had the contract been on the Hague, Hague-Visby or Hamburg terms as applicable, unless the contract has been approved in advance by the insurer.

Deviation

(2) A deviation, or as a consequence of a deviation, from the contractually agreed voyage, which may deprive the assured of the right to rely on defenses or rights of limitation which would otherwise have been available to him, unless the insurer have agreed that cover may continue unprejudiced.

Loading

(3) The failure to arrive or late arrival of the ship at a port of loading, or the failure to load or delay in loading any particular cargo other than under a bill of lading already issued.

Discharge

(4) The discharge of cargo at a place other than that stipulated in the contract of carriage.

Documentation and Delivery

(5) The delivery of cargo carried under a negotiable document of title without production of that document by the person to whom delivery is made except where the cargo has been carried under the terms of a non-negotiable document, and has been properly delivered as required by that document, notwithstanding that the assured may be liable under the terms of a negotiable document of title issued by or on behalf of a party other than the assured providing for carriage in part upon the ship and in part upon another ship or by another mode of transport.

(6) Delivery of cargo carried under a non-negotiable document without production of such document by the person to whom delivery is made, where such production is required by the express terms of that document or the law to which that document, or the contract of carriage contained in or evidenced by it, is subject, except where the assured is required by any other law to which he is subject to deliver or relinquish custody or control of the cargo, without production of such document.

(7) The issue of a document containing or evidencing the contract of carriage recording the loading or shipment or receipt for shipment on a date other than the date on which the cargo was in fact loaded, shipped or received.

(8) A document containing or evidencing the contract of carriage issued with the knowledge of the assured or his master with an incorrect description of the cargo or its quantity or condition.

Finished Steel Products

(9) The carriage of finished steel products, unless the assured has arranged for a preloading survey to be carried out by an insurer-approved surveyor at each port of shipment, and the bills of lading have been claused in accordance with the findings of the surveyor as to the condition of cargo at the time of loading.

Deck Cargo

(10) Loss of, damage to or responsibility in respect of cargo carried on deck unless it is carried under a contract of carriage which permits it to be carried on deck and the contract states that it is being so carried and either it exonerates the assured from all liability in respect of such cargo or it applies the Hague or Hague-Visby Rules to such cargo, or it is customary to carry such cargo on deck, or such carriage has been approved by the insurer.

Valuables

(11) The carriage of valuables.

Value Declared on Bill of Lading

(12) Goods carried under a document containing or evidencing the contract of carriage where the value per unit, piece or package has been stated to be in excess of US$2,500, or the equivalent in any other currency, which may deprive the assured of the right to rely on defences or rights of limitation which would otherwise have been available to him, to the extent that such liabilities exceed that sum.

SECTION C: RISKS COVERED

Unrecoverable General Average Contributions

3.14 The proportion of general average, special charges or salvage which the assured is or would be entitled to claim from cargo or from another party which is not recoverable solely by reason of a breach of the contract of carriage.

Exclusions to rule 3.14

(1) If the contribution is irrecoverable by reason of a deviation, rule 3.13 exclusion (2) applies to any claim under rule 3.14.

(2) The insurer may reject or reduce a claim if the contract of carriage under which the cargo was being carried did not include Article IV Rule (2)(a) of the Hague Rules, as amended by the Hague-Visby Rules, or an equally wide exemption from liability.

Ship's Proportion of General Average

3.15 Ship's proportion of general average, special charges or salvage not recoverable under the hull policies by reason of the value of the ship being assessed at a sound value in excess of the insured value under the hull policies. The insurer may determine the proper value (being the market value of the ship without commitment) for which the ship should have been insured under the hull policies, and the insurer shall pay only the amount of the ship's proportion of general average which would not have been recoverable under the hull policies, if the ship had been insured thereunder at such value.

Fines

3.16 Fines imposed on the assured or upon any other person whom he reasonably reimburses or is legally liable to indemnify:

- 3.16.1 for short or over delivery of cargo, or for failure to comply with regulations concerning the declaration of goods or the documentation of cargo.
- 3.16.2 for smuggling or breach of any customs or immigration law or regulation.
- 3.16.3 in respect of the accidental escape or discharge of any substance, so long as the assured is insured for pollution liabilities by the insurer subject to his terms of entry and the relevant limit of liability.

Exclusions to rule 3.16

There shall be no recovery in respect of a fine imposed for or arising out of:

- (1) Claims arising from any act of the assured in breach of the mandatory rules and regulations of Turkish Law, moral values, public order or rights of personality
- (2) Overloading
- (3) Illegal fishing
- (4) Any personal act or default on the part of the assured or his manager
- (5) Wilful misconduct on the part of any person unless the assured has been compelled by law to pay the fine.
- (6) Fines arising from:
 - (6.1) Entry of the insured vessel into prohibited waters and
 - (6.2) Disregarding of routing regulations.

115

Enquiry Expenses

- 3.17 Costs and expenses incurred in protecting an assured's interests before a formal enquiry into a casualty to the ship where, in the opinion of the insurer, a claim upon the insurer is likely to arise, or in other cases as the insurer determines.

SECTION C: RISKS COVERED

Interference by Lawful Authorities

3.18 Costs and expenses incurred in protecting an assured's interests in cases of interference by any lawful authority of any country, but only to the extent that those costs and expenses have been incurred with the prior agreement of the insurer.

Confiscation of Ship by Customs Authorities

3.19 Loss of the ship following its confiscation by any legally empowered body in respect of the infringement of any customs law or regulation but only if and to the extent that, notwithstanding rule 5.1, the insurer decides that the assured shall recover from the insurer.

Exclusions to rule 3.19

(1) Claims arising from any act of the assured in breach of the mandatory rules and regulations of Turkish Law, moral values, public order or rights of personality

(2) The amount recoverable shall not exceed the market value of the ship at the date of the confiscation.

(3) The assured must have satisfied the insurer that he took all such steps as appear to the insurer to be reasonable to prevent the infringement of the customs law or regulation giving rise to the confiscation.

(4) No claim will be considered by the insurer until the assured has been deprived of his interest in the ship

payment were to be made by such parties or reinsurers. SECTION J: PERIOD OF INSURANCE
